DEVOLUTION DEAL IS 'DEAD' SAYS LEADER

Air ambulance launches new night flights thanks to link-up

EMERGENCY medical service helicopters will now patrol the skies for seven hours longer each night across Hampshire to provide help for those in need.

Charity Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance (HIOWAA) launched its night-time operations as part of a new partnership forged with Oxfordshire-based Thames Valley Air Ambulance (TVAA) last night. The move will see two Airbus H134 helicopters cover the region for 19 hours a day, and enable paramedics to reach anywhere in the county within 15 minutes.

County council pulls out of move for single 'southern powerhouse'

PLANS to create a Hampshire-wide combined authority look to be in tatters after the county council pulled out of a proposed devolution deal.

The idea to create a single "southern powerhouse" to devolve powers and funding to local authorities was thrown into doubt last month after the Government insisted that a directly-elected mayor be included.

But this move led to the alienation of Basingstoke and Deane, Winchester and other northern districts, with the areas feeling that a 'metro mayor' would leave them "severely disadvantaged" compared to the south.

Portsmouth and Southampton are looking to front a combined authority for the Solent area, which would also include East Hampshire - boundaries that the county council's leader Roy Perry said make "little sense".

The leader of Basingstoke and Deane's council has backed his colleagues' decision to bow out of the deal, claiming that while he supported devolution, he was not prepared to disadvantage the borough.

Cllr Clive Sanders said: "It's like the devolution hokey-cokey with the county council at the moment - first they're in, then they're out."

"I'm a great supporter of devolving responsibilities of local government down to local areas, but not at any price."

"We believe in local government being local and there was no sign of that."

"We're not ruling out devolution in the future, but a deal for the whole of Hampshire is dead."

The original deal would have seen powers and funding on health, education and transport devolved to the borough, giving Basingstoke and Deane more responsibilities in handling its own services.

Cllr Sanders insisted that a similar agreement could still be thrashed out between the districts in the north of Hampshire.

Force appoints first female police chief

HAMPSHIRE has appointed its first female chief constable after the county's police and crime panel (CPT) voted unanimously for the move.

Former Sussex Police Deputy Chief Constable Olivia Pinkney was confirmed as the new chief of Hampshire Constabulary following a hearing on Friday.

Mrs Pinkney will officially take over the role on April 4 as the replacement for Andy Marsh, who left the constabulary in January to work at Avon and Somerset Police.

As previously reported in the Observer, Hampshire police and crime commissioner (PCC) Simon Hayes named the former Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary Assistant Inspector of Constabulary as his preferred candidate last month.

And the commissioner has now expressed his delight at the decision by the CPT, labelling Ch Con Pinkney's appointment as "hugely important" for the future of the constabulary.

He said: "I believe that Olivia

By Christian Wilson

Pinkney has all the necessary qualities needed in a modern Chief Constable of Hampshire Constabulary: experience, dignity, understanding, and humility.

"This appointment is hugely important for the future development of Hampshire Constabulary, but it is not just about the Constabulary itself, the Chief Constable must work strategically, and with our partners across Hampshire and the Isle of Wight."

Ch Con Pinkney said: "I'm absolutely delighted to hear the panel's decision and I look forward to leading the professionals within Hampshire Constabulary and serving the communities across the county and the Isle of Wight."

The PCP is required to hold a confirmation hearing to review the proposed appointment of a new chief constable as part of its role in scrutinising the work of the PCC.

Crime panel chairman Councillor David Stewart said: "The panel has unanimously agreed that Olivia Pinkney was an outstanding candidate for this position."

"The way in which she answered each of the questions posed by the panel has demonstrated her suitability for the role, meaning that Hampshire and the Isle of Wight now have a new chief constable of exceptionally high calibre."

• Hampshire PCC Simon Hayes, left, has expressed his delight at the appointment of Olivia Pinkney, right, as chief constable, having recommended her for the role

Officers and public honoured at awards night

HAMPSHIRE'S top cops were honoured for going beyond the call of duty during a special ceremony on Friday.

• Det Con Jonathan Ramchurn (right) is presented with his award

The stories of some of the bravest residents in the county were also highlighted during the force's Chief Constable's Awards.

Acting Chief Constable Graham McNulty and Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire Nigel Atkinson presented nine awards during the showpiece to Hampshire's shining lights.

Among those honoured was Detective Constable Jonathan Ramchurn, from the Northern Investigation Team, who was handed a Chief Constable Commendation for his work dismantling the CJ drug gang working out of Basingstoke.

Nine people were sentenced to a combined total of 31 years in prison for peddling large amounts of heroin and cocaine around the area, thanks to the work of Det Con Ramchurn in identifying the key suspects.

Acting Ch Con McNulty said:

"We have seen acts of extreme bravery, remarkable teamwork, tremendous detective ability, great compassion and a desire to serve and support the communities of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight."

"It is an absolute honour to be able to present these awards to such deserving people."

And he added: "We are immensely proud of the dedication of our officers and staff and it is always a tremendous pleasure to recognise the contribution members of our community make to keeping our counties safe and in helping us to protect the vulnerable."

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Residents have until next Thursday to have their say on what the borough's future housing priorities should be.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council has so far received comments from over 200 people as part of a consultation to help shape a four-year plan for affordable housing and tackling homelessness.

The strategy identifies the need to increase the amount of affordable housing for rent and ownership, ensure residents know about home ownership opportunities, and meet the needs of homeless people by taking preventative action.

Cabinet member for housing and regeneration Cllr Terri Reid said: "It is important that the new homes being built meet the needs, finances and aspirations of our residents."

Misty weather is blamed for fatal plane accident

• Lewis and Sally Tonkinson were fatally injured after their light aircraft crashed in Blackwood Forest, near to Popham Airfield (pictures courtesy of INS)

A COUPLE that were killed in a plane crash near Popham hit a tree after they flew too low to the ground due to misty weather conditions, air accident investigators have concluded.

Lewis Tonkinson, 50, who was flying the light aircraft, and his wife Sally, 44, both suffered fatal injuries on January 4 last year after they went down in Blackwood Forest, close to Popham Airfield.

The couple's six-year-old son

By Christian Wilson

was also on board at the time of the crash and suffered life-threatening injuries from which he would eventually recover after being treated at Southampton General Hospital.

A report from the Air Accidents Investigations Branch (AAIB) has now found that the "occasional low cloud and poor visibility may have precluded flight".

The investigators added that a defect with the engine turbo (turbocharger) control had also occurred, causing the Alpi Pioneer plane's engine manifold air pressure limit to be exceeded and seize up.

Eyewitnesses claim to have seen the couple, from Alcester in Warwickshire, fly over the A303, less than 200ft above the ground, and manoeuvre "as if preparing to land", at this stage.

A radio operator at Popham Airfield called police to raise concerns at 3.34pm after the plane disappeared from his view in the fog. The light aircraft then stalled as it flew on a low-level, left-hand circuit towards the airfield and struck trees before crashing into Blackwood Forest at 3.41pm.

The AAIB report said: "The poor weather conditions at Popham meant the pilot, who had limited flying experience, especially on this aircraft type, had to fly below the normal circuit height."

"This would have increased his workload and reduced the time available in which to make critical decisions. When combined with the additional workload created by the engine fault, this may have led to the circumstances surrounding the failure of the engine and would then have limited the options available when confronted with the need to perform a forced landing."

A full inquest into Mr and Mrs Tonkinson's deaths will be concluded at Basingstoke Law Courts in New Road on Wednesday, April 13.

Voting reminder

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Residents are being reminded that they have until Monday, April 18, to include their names on the electoral register.

Voters will go to the polls on May 5 to elect one third of the borough's 60 councillors, while also voting on who should be the next Hampshire police and crime commissioner (PCC).

Sports awards

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: A total of seven people from the borough are on the shortlist for today's Hampshire and Isle of Wight Sports Awards.

The awards at St Mary's Stadium in Southampton are the only countywide event to publicly reward commitment, performance and excellence across all sports.

Other local nominees include Zoe Sadler, Chas Harvey, Dean Crossley, Anil Patel and Simone Williams.

Basingstoke Gymnastics Club, Basingstoke Hockey Club Ladies 2nds, Sharks Disability Swimming and Shin Gi Tai Martial Arts Academy are also up for team awards.

Government insistence on mayor splits county

• From front page

He said: "I'm not disappointed because what we wanted right from the start was to get the best solution for the residents in our borough, and being a part of what is currently being proposed would leave us at risk of being severely disadvantaged."

"People who are making the decisions need to know the area, not be miles away down on the south coast."

He added: "If you can strike up a deal for the Solent, you can have one for the north of Hampshire as well."

Discussions to create a combined authority, including the county council and Hampshire's 11 borough and three unitary bodies, began last summer, and had received unanimous backing up until recently.

County council leader Mr Perry said: "Regrettably, at virtually the last minute, Government insisted that no deal would be possible without a directly-elected mayor at its head in an area totally unsuited.

"Government's insistence has had the effect of splitting the county on the whole subject, [which] I do not understand."

Cllr Perry added: "I remain of the view that our original proposal is the right one for the economic prosperity and democratic accountability of the whole area."

"I have not given up hope that the true principles of devolution may be rescued alongside the best deal for the whole of this great county."

Link-up allows charity to launch night flights

HAMPSHIRE'S airborne emergency medical service charity officially started night-time operations for the first time last night.

A new partnership between Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance (HIOWAA) and Thames Valley Air Ambulance (TVAA) will see two helicopters cover the region 19 hours a day.

The move will see the two air ambulances work together to provide an additional seven hours of coverage every night until 2am, meaning that emergency treatment can be provided in Hampshire within 15 minutes.

By Christian Wilson

HIOWAA and TVAA will remain operational in their respective counties for 12 hours a day before taking it in turns to cover the new service across the South Central Ambulance Service (SCAS) region.

Charity CEO Alex Lochrane said: "Working in close partnership with SCAS to crew and deploy the service, our doctor paramedic teams can be at the scene of an incident within minutes, ready to deliver an advanced level of critical care to the patient and give them the very best chances of survival and recovery.

"I am immensely proud of our teams, who work tirelessly each day and night; not only to deliver a unique life-saving service, but to develop their knowledge and training to ensure we continue to advance on-scene patient care."

HIOWAA costs £230,000 a month to maintain its service, and relies on donations from the community due to a lack of Government funding.

A full range of life-saving equipment is carried on board the charity's Airbus H135.

Mr Lochrane added: "Introducing night operations adds another dimension to our service, helping us to save lives and provide emergency medical support and transfer where and when it is most needed.

"We would not have been able to take this important step forward without the on-going support that we receive from the people, companies and organisations that support us, to whom we will always be very grateful."

Politicians back apprenticeship week

• Maria Miller (second right) meets the apprentices

THE county council and Basingstoke's MP have called on businesses to take on youngsters as part of National Apprenticeship Week.

A total of 5,200 new apprentices have been started across Basingstoke since 2010, while there has also been a 23.5 per cent increase across the county during that time.

There are 95 apprentices at Hampshire County Council, with a number of trainees swapping with senior managers across the authority this week to celebrate the campaign's theme of 'Rising to the Top'.

And the council reiterated its intention to provide 1,000 youth employment opportunities and 850 apprenticeships by 2018.

Executive member for education Cllr Peter Edgar said: "I would urge employers to consider the value that apprentices can bring to a business."

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller visited apprentices from local employer SSE at its offices in Thatcham on Friday. She said: "The apprentices I met at SSE were an example of how firms can both give young people much-needed experience and gain huge commercial benefit."

Councillors air fury over need to back new homes

ANOTHER housing development has been granted approval in Bramley after councillors claimed they had "no choice" but to give the plans the go-ahead.

Planning permission was authorised for the building of 65 homes on land to the south of The Street at a meeting of the borough council's development control committee last Wednesday.

By Christian Wilson

day night. A total of 70 letters of objection to the plans had been received before the meeting.

Out of the 65 homes, 26 of them will be set aside for affordable housing.

The borough council had already given the green light to plans to build 425 homes at Razors Farm, off Cufaude Lane, and 200 more in Minchens Lane, with councillors claiming that further development in Bramley would be "unfair".

But, despite acknowledging that Bramley C of E Primary School was at capacity and the C32 road was already plagued by traffic problems, members insisted they had no power to stop Hampshire County Council from successfully appealing their decision should they reject the proposals.

Baughurst and Tadley North councillor Michael Bound said: "As a former teacher, I'm hugely dissatisfied with Hampshire in terms of what is happening in Bramley, because the school cannot expand any more.

"It's the same with the roads, as we know they can't take this but Hampshire Highways experts will say it's fine, so I can't see any way we can defend this."

Popley East Cllr David Potter said: "I have huge empathy for the people of Bramley, but the simple facts are that we don't have a five-year land supply and this in a main part satisfies the provisions from which we have to look at.

"We have no choice but to approve this application."

Bramley and Sherfield councillor Nicholas Robinson insisted that the people of Bramley had "had enough" however, while revealing that due to developments passed since 2000, the village would have increased by 100 per cent in 2020.

He said: "Developments should be fair for all, but it's not fair for the people of Bramley.

"They're destroying the village and all the local people are fed up of getting walked over and not having any influence on where they live."

Fellow ward councillor Chris Tomblin told the meeting: "This is just not sustainable and I don't see it as having any benefit to Bramley."

Charity work rated 'outstanding'

• Naomi House & Jacksplace residents and staff celebrate the rating

A CHILDREN and young person's charity based near Basingstoke has been rated as 'outstanding' from a health and social care regulator.

Naomi House & Jacksplace hospices received the top mark on Monday following a surprise two-day inspection by the Care Quality Commission last year.

A 22-page report found that the Sutton Scotney-based charity, which provides support for youngsters with life-limiting illnesses and their families, was "very caring" and showed "kindness and compassion".

The report added: "Staff were very motivated and demonstrated a commitment to providing the best quality care in a compassionate way.

"There was a focus on positive risk-taking so children and young people could try new experiences."

Chief executive Mark Smith said: "This overwhelmingly positive report demonstrates that we are always doing our best for the children, young adults and families that we care for, and gives us a platform on which to further develop our service in the coming months and years."

Appeal boosted by £20,000 donation

AFTER two years of fundraising, Festival Place staff have handed over more than £20,000 to a Basingstoke charity.

The shopping centre named Ark Cancer Centre Charity as its charity of the year for both 2014 and 2015, setting itself an annual target of raising £10,000. And the staff managed to smash the target to raise a grand total of £20,445.01 as part of the two-year campaign which saw a wide variety of fundraising efforts.

Festival Place foursome Ieva Bajorinaite, Sean Taylor, Sarah Killingback and Jo Lush set the bar high last August when they skydived from 10,000 feet to collect £1,200.

And centre director Steven Connolly presented a giant cheque to Ark Cancer Centre Charity last week, before promising to continue to support the charity.

He said: "This has been a great team effort and everyone at Festival Place is delighted to have raised such a significant sum for such a good cause.

By Christian Wilson

"My team and I will continue to follow the progress of Ark Cancer Centre Charity's fundraising campaign and the cancer treatment centre project with interest."

Festival Place also raised more than £2,500 through two Star Wars events at the centre, alongside a range of running, cycling and rowing challenges.

Ark Cancer Centre Charity is looking to raise £5million to help fund the construction of Basingstoke and Deane's first dedicated cancer treatment centre at a proposed site near Junction 7 of the M3.

Trustee Merv Rees labelled the donations received from the likes of Festival Place as "priceless".

He added: "You have made a significant contribution to the campaign to raise awareness of, and funds for, Ark Cancer Centre Charity, and it is public support such as this which is making a telling difference to the progress of the fundraising appeal and the cancer treatment centre campaign."

Council gives land to builder for affordable new homes

BASINGSTOKE'S council has chosen to sanction the free transfer of land for 12 affordable homes to a local builder as part of a new approach for the authority.

A total of four two-bedroom houses and four one-bedroom flats for affordable rent and four two-bedroom houses for shared ownership are proposed for the land.

Off-road car parking for 15 residents would also be provided for the site at the corner of Lower Brook Street and May Street should the plans be given planning permission.

The council's cabinet voted to approve the proposal on Tuesday night as part of its plans to work with Sovereign to build more affordable housing.

Cabinet member for finance and resources Cllr John Izett said: "The proposed affordable homes here would provide much needed accommodation for single people, couples and small families."

Sovereign asset and regeneration director Roger Keeling added: "The council and Sovereign are both major landowners in the town, but these pockets of land can be fragmented, and so we're able to do much more when we work together on sites like this."

Blue-light scheme held up for praise

THERESA May has described Hampshire as "the apple of my eye" in Parliament for its work in successfully collaborating the work of firefighters and police officers.

As previously reported in the Observer, more than 100 Hampshire Constabulary staff moved into the fire service's headquarters in Eastleigh in November.

The cost-saving move was a first for both forces nationwide and will save each about £1million at a time when blue-light services are being hit by reductions in Government funding.

Several other stations from across the country have since followed suit in combining emergency services, with Winchester MP Steve Brine asking the Home Secretary during last Monday's debate on the police and crime bill: "So is Hampshire not the apple of [your] eye as [you] embark on this bill?"

And Mrs May duly obliged, telling the House of Commons: "I am tempted to do that."

"I should perhaps respond that my honourable friend the member for Winchester is the apple of my eye when he stands up and makes such a point about

By Christian Wilson

Hampshire. Hampshire is a very good example of the collaboration that can work.

"These are all innovative ideas that provide a better service to people. I commend Hampshire and other parts of the country where they are putting this collaboration into practice."

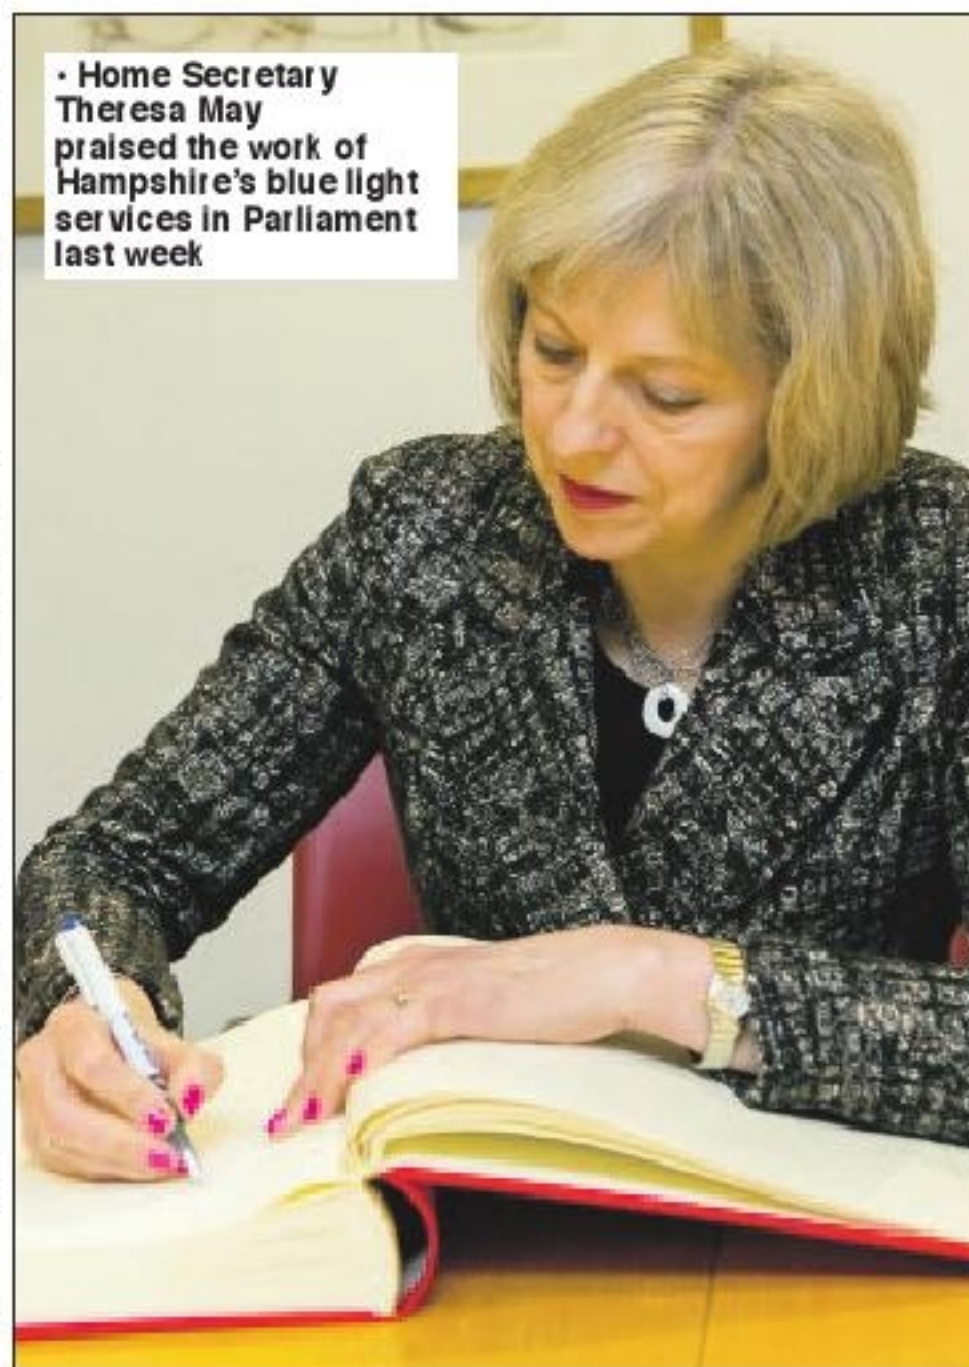

Police and Fire Minister Mike Penning met with Hampshire police and crime commissioner Simon Hayes and senior figures from both the county's police and fire services during a visit to the joint headquarters in January.

And, following positive feedback from the minister, Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service chief officer Dave Curry expressed his delight that the collaboration was being praised nationally.

He added: "We pride ourselves on collaborations with partners, allowing us to provide an exemplary service to the people of Hampshire and give them the best value for money."

"We are delighted this partnership work is being recognised nationally."

Council brands abuse report as 'concerning'

A GOVERNMENT report has found that 49 per cent of adults in the South East are put off from reporting child abuse or neglect because of fears they might be wrong.

The findings from the Department for Education (DfE) also found that 39 per cent of people in the region said they would find reporting offences more challenging than reporting the crime of a family member.

Hampshire County Council received 107,000 different contacts from professionals, families and the public relating to child neglect and abuse over the last year.

The council's executive lead member for children's services called on residents to play a role in protecting children by supporting the DfE's 'Together we can tackle child abuse' campaign.

Cllr Keith Mans said: "The DfE's findings are concerning."

"I hope this campaign will help to reassure people that they don't have to be absolutely certain about their suspicions before they talk to someone."

He also moved to reassure residents that reporting an offence would not automatically result in a child being removed from their family, labelling this as a "myth".

County council to help young people find chosen career

THE county council will work with young people from across Hampshire to help them take the next step towards finding their chosen career.

Over 20 exhibitors will be on hand to aid youngsters in highlighting the wide range of apprenticeships and training on offer countywide at the authority's 'Showcasing your Future' event on April 21.

The county council has committed to providing 1,000 youth employment opportunities by 2018, including 850 apprenticeships, as part of its Youth Investment Programme.

And the authority's executive member for education has now called on youngsters to attend the careers, apprenticeship and training event.

Cllr Peter Edgar said: "The county council is delighted to be able to showcase the variety of apprenticeships and training it has to offer young people.

"It is important to remember that every young person is an individual and they should be given the opportunity to pick the route to their chosen career that suits them."

The career opportunities event will take place between 5pm and 8pm at Ashburton Hall in Winchester.

Odiham team outstrips rivals in F1 tournament

By Christian Wilson

AN Odiham school will boast three different teams at the national finals of the world's largest science education competition next month.

Robert May's School's Enigma UK team topped hopefuls from all across the area to win the F1 in Schools London and South East final at the home of Chelsea Football Club - Stamford Bridge.

The challenge saw the pupils, aged 15 and 16, design, construct and race a miniature Formula 1 car around a specially-designed, 20-metre test track against other teams on Wednesday, March 2.

Enigma UK were undoubtedly the stars of the show however, with team members Katelyn Chelberg, Nathan Bryce, Ella Stevenson, Sarah Matthews, all 15, and Cora Morrow, 16, claiming first place in the F1 class and winning awards for best research and development, fastest car and best engineered car.

Team manager Katelyn said: "We're very excited to be heading to the nationals. We did a lot of development and testing, including balance, CFD, LERS, track testing and more, which we think helped us win.

"We're going to make some improvements for the National Finals, including our pit display, sponsorship and the car, which we'll tear apart and rebuild, definitely making it slimmer."

The school also claimed a haul of four more trophies, as team Kinetic claimed second place and the Innovative Thinking Award, while Velocidad Racing won the F1 Rookie Class and the fastest car in Rookie Class.

All three teams will go on to the national finals at the Silverstone Circuit Wing on April 20 and 21, where a win would see them jet off to Austin, Texas, for the world finals in October.

F1 in Schools is the only global educational programme that raises awareness of science, technology, engineering and maths (STEM) and Formula One among students and schoolchildren in every region, of every country, on every continent.

Founder and chairman Andrew Denford said: "I am always surprised and delighted to see the enormous amount of work that the students put into this competition and this year's event was no exception.

"With the competition heading into its 14th year, I've seen many pit displays and F1 in Schools cars, but at every event I see new innovations, ingenious design ideas and passionate, hardworking students.

"They are all a credit to their schools and really show just how inspiring F1 in Schools can be to budding engineers, managers and designers."

All-weather entertainment!

WE had arranged to take our four grandchildren out for a day over the October half term week as we do every year.

This year the weather was not looking too good, so we looked for somewhere that would be appropriate for dry and/or wet weather. We decided upon 4 Kingdoms in Thatcham, although we had never visited there before it looked ideal as it has a large indoor play area as well as outside facilities.

When we arrived it had recently been raining and was rather windy, so we started our day in the huge barn which contained climbing frames, go karts, a ball pit and animal pens. The children were keen to see the animals (we have four grandchildren aged from 3 to 12). When we got to the animal pens there were pigs, ponies, rabbits, sheep, and, of course Fred the ferret! Fred was being walked at that time and the children took turns to walk him around the pens. The keeper Carl was so passionate about his animals and took great delight in telling us all about Fred and his friends.

One other thing to note is that once you have paid your entrance ticket, everything is free, which, considering all the children made good use of all the rides, was excellent value for money. The go karts proved very popular indeed!

After lunch the weather improved and we ventured out into the large outdoor area, with bouncy castles, slides, more animals, trampolines just to mention a few!

Later in the afternoon we did the 'spooky walk' which was specifically for Halloween, very scary!

Overall we found the staff there extremely friendly and helpful, especially with the children, who thoroughly enjoyed the whole day. We will be returning there again, maybe on a warmer day where we will be able to enjoy the outside facilities even more.

I would thoroughly recommend a visit there, it is perfect for children of all ages, including me!

For the first time ever, they will leave the only city and family they have ever known. Once outside, old discoveries are quickly rendered meaningless with the revelation of shocking new truths. Tris and Four must quickly decide who they can trust as a ruthless battle ignites beyond the walls of Chicago which threatens all of humanity. # FASTFIT SERVICE CENTRE

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an engine overhaul or just tweak-ing the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to drive. In these tough times, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

Ventriloquists bring puppets to life

LEGENDARY ventriloquist Ronn Lucas will be amazing the audience at The Anvil on Tuesday, March 22, with his show 'Double Talk'.

The Churchill Way gig is the first of a run of shows in Britain for American Lucas, who has his own television show with characters Scorch the Dragon and Buffalo Billy and has also performed in high-profile gigs at Las Vegas and in Hollywood.

By James Richings

'Double Talk' also stars Basingstoke ventriloquist Steve Hewlett, who shot to fame as a finalist on the TV show 'Britain's Got Talent' in 2013. Hewlett also produces and directs the show.

Hewlett told the Observer: "I've performed in a few shows at The Anvil which includes a pantomime here in 2005. This means I got to know the team and loved it, especially it being my home town.

"I'm also excited as my tour sold out at The Haymarket two years ago and I filmed my first DVD there, so to produce at show at The Anvil is a huge honour."

A ventriloquist since the age of 12, Hewlett admitted to the Observer that it had been a long and hard journey from when he first decided to be a ventriloquist until now.

During his early days, the performer had a number of different jobs, including working as a paperboy, a factory worker, a shop assistant, a chip shop potato chipper, an usher and stage door keeper.

But, after becoming a professional ventriloquist at the age of 22 in 1997, things started to turn for the better for Hewlett.

His big breakthrough came three years ago when he auditioned for 'Britain's Got Talent', eventually finishing fourth overall on the talent show.

"Once you make it to the live shows, those last two weeks fly by but they are the best part of BGT," Hewlett said.

"A goal for any professional entertainer is to perform on Saturday night live TV and I was lucky enough to experience this twice.

"Once I got the wild card to the final,

I knew I had to make an impact and I'm proud to say it paid off."

He added: "This show is truly a highlight of my career so far, it's a show I'll never forget." Tickets for the show cost from £16 to £19.50 and is suitable for children aged over five. The performance starts at 7.45pm.

Cole steps way to success

JUST like last year, dancer Brendan Cole will be showing off his dazzling footwork when he arrives at The Anvil this Saturday, March 19.

The 39-year-old New Zealand performer returns to Basingstoke as part of his 'A Night to Remember' UK tour after taking The Anvil by storm in February 2015.

Brendan told the Observer: "My shows are best described as an evening-with-style show which are full of live music from a phenomenal 14-piece (on stage) band, dance from my superb, eight-strong dance cast and with some chat thrown in for good measure.

"And what I want is for the audience to be entertained from start to finish and to leave with a smile on their face.

"Hopefully, they'll feel they have met the real me, slightly cheeky and a pretty normal fella, as well as seeing some on-stage magic and just be excited about having been a part of the evening."

Brendan has shot to fame since moving from his native New Zealand to the UK in the early 1990s.

Originally a roof layer back home, Brendan appeared on a number of British dancing shows and competitions during his first few years in Britain, hoping to make a big breakthrough.

And that massive national breakthrough came in the summer of 2004

By James Richings

when he took part in the first series of television show 'Strictly Come Dancing' as a professional dancer.

Partnered with TV presenter and newsreader Natasha Kaplinsky, the duo stepped their way to victory in the final.

Brendan, who has taken part in every series since then, cites winning the first series as one of the many 'highlights' of his long and successful career.

"It wouldn't be my greatest achievement, although certainly a highlight," he said. "My greatest achievements in dance are definitely my shows as they are not put on by a company and I come in and headline.

"They are mine from start to finish creatively and I'm extremely proud of what me and my cast achieve.

"However, I've had some magical moments on 'Strictly'.

"For example in 2013 with Sophie Ellis-Bextor, I did some of my finest work from start to finish and making the final to me was a bigger achievement than winning.

"I was also ranked in the top 12 of the world competitively pre 'Strictly' and some of the places I performed during this period of my career I am immensely proud of."

Tickets for the show cost £37 and it starts at 7.45pm.

BASINGSTOKE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Sibelius' rousing and turbulent tone poem Finlandia evokes the national struggle of the Finnish people. Dynamic, prizewinning, Japanese-Russian pianist Yochio Hamano performs Chopin's deeply expressive Piano Concerto No 1. Although the work was written whilst Chopin was still in his late teens, it is evident that he was already a composer who had reached full emotional and musical maturity. The Fourth Symphony is Brahms' final essay in symphonic form and is regarded by many as his finest. Brahms' inimitable orchestration and use of tone colour are employed to the maximum effect.

Sat, Mar 26, 7.45pm

THE THREE DEGREES

They are recognised all around the world for songs like When I see you again, Dirty Ol' Man, and Take Good Care Of Yourself. This American female vocal group formed in 1963 in Philadelphia, and have been continuously touring for more than 40 years!

They even sang Prince Charles at his 30th birthday party and were guests at his wedding to Princess Diana.

The group has remained a trio with two of the original members, and is now made up of Helen Scott, Valerie Holiday and Freddie Pool, and we can't wait to welcome the ladies to our stage.

Sat, Apr 16, 8pm
The Forge, Basingstoke
DIANA JONES
In the last decade, singer-songwriter Diana Jones has brought her unique and original style of Appalachian singing and songwriting to stages from Nashville to Amsterdam. Jones' story is as full of intricate connections as her narrative: the almost mystical connection she felt to rural Southern music while growing up in suburban New York, which led to the reunion at twenty-three with her birth family in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee. Her grandfather, Robert Lee Maranville helped Jones make sense of her own distinctive voice and love of the storytelling genre. A lone pilgrimage to a cabin after his death produced the songs that became her debut release, My Remembrance of You. Diana's last release, Museum of Appalachia Recordings brought the music back to the family roots. The record received wide acclaim and led to tours of Europe and the United States. She looks forward to setting foot on the next concert stage in support of her new release Diana Jones Live in Concert.

NICOLA BENEDETTI AND ARMONICO CONSORT
One of the most sought after violinists of today and winner of Best Female Artist at the 2012 and 2013 Classical BRIT Awards, Nicola Benedetti joins Armonico Consort for a wonderfully varied programme.

Mozart's sunny and uplifting Turkish Concerto is certainly the most impressive of his five violin concertos. It surpasses the others in scale and richness of ideas, in brilliance of orchestration and solo-violin writing. Nicola Benedetti also returns to her great love of Italian Baroque, and will be in her element in the two inventive Vivaldi concertos. Between these, Mozart's short choral work includes the beautiful Laudate dominum for soprano.

Scouting out a great estate

I KNOW what you are thinking... 'Scout', that's a funny model name for a car. Let's not over-think this. This is not a car for 'The Scouts' - that was actually 'The Scout Association' formed in about 1910 by Robert Baden-Powell, 1st Baron Baden-Powell, first Chief Scout of The Boy Scouts Association.

So why call it an Octavia 'Scout' then? Well, that's simple. It's designed to be a rough-road ready sort of car. You know the sort of thing: sump guard, engine guard, underbody stone guard and many other features that give it an ability to do some of the things most normal cars with a 4X4 setup can't do.

Engine: My test car was fitted with a 2.0 TDi 184PS unit that is perfect in every way - it pulls like a train and revs like the clappers. Marry that with a brilliant 4X4 system and a 6-speed DSG gearbox that actually works. Here are some of the figures: Combined mpg of 56.5, max speed 136mph and 0-62 time of 7.8sec.

On the road: The Octavia feels effortless into the corners and that's down to its 4X4 abilities. Road holding is the Scout's party piece, along with its ability to not get stuck in anything more than a pothole.

Inside: Skoda has always taken a hit on bland interior, but I have to say with the 'Scout' it's perfect. This is an interior that will wear well over time. Standard equipment in the 'Scout' is as follows: 17" Polar Alloys, alcantara and Leather Scout upholstery, cruise control, colour maxi-DOT trip computer, lane assist, off-road mode, rough road package and increased ground clearance of (+33mm).

Safety: Yep, 7 airbags and an array of intelligent systems to keep you safe if you ever find yourself in a difficult situation. One feature I must tell you about though is the automatic post-collision braking system (MKB). In the event of a crash, the MKB, which is standard on all Octavias, will be activated. This recognises when an impact has occurred and brakes the car to prevent it being uncontrollably propelled into oncoming traffic, reducing the risk of further crashes.

To sum up: A brilliant car for anyone who doesn't want a normal estate car.

Price: £28,200 OTR not including fitted options.

• Liam Enver-Marum in action earlier this season

BASINGSTOKE Town missed a great chance to close in on one of their relegation rivals on Saturday after they drew 1-1 with Havant & Waterlooville at the Camrose.

The Dragons looked like they would claim a precious win as Reece Connolly's leveller in the 70th minute helped turn the game against 19th-placed Hawks after they'd earlier fallen behind seconds before half time.

But despite pinning their Hampshire rivals back into their own half with wave after wave of attacks late on, Town couldn't grab a second goal to leave them eight points from safety with just nine matches left to play.

close after just two minutes as Shamir Mullings used his pace to break clear of the Basingstoke defence, but the striker prodded a weak effort straight into the arms of Aaron Howe.

A smart reverse ball from James Harper then sent Dragons forward Liam Enver-Marum racing into space down the right side of the box to fire into the side netting 10 minutes later as the hosts started to grow into the game.

And Michael Gilkes' side were left wondering how they weren't in front in the 39th minute as Tom Bird's corner found Chris Flood unmarked six yards out.

But the striker was only able to head his effort at keeper Ryan Young, who palmed the ball down into the ground to force a goal line scramble, with Jack Deaman seeing his close-range follow up blocked and cleared to safety.

A fantastic last-ditch tackle from debutant Guri Demuria then denied the dangerous Mullings as he looked set to pull the trigger just seconds later. But after escaping once, Basingstoke wouldn't be so lucky a second time as a superb piece of improvisation from Ben Swallow saw the midfielder loop a flicked finish over the head of the despairing Howe and into the net to give Havant the lead in first half stoppage time.

Connolly then came inches away from scoring a carbon copy level-ler for Town 20 minutes after the break, as a looped effort across goal seemed to take forever to just clear the bar.

The striker wasn't to be denied. From a Rob Rice long throw on the right, Connolly hooked a fantastic finish over his own shoulder from 12 yards out and into the far corner of the net to grab Basingstoke a deserved equaliser.

And Rice had a huge chance to win it eight minutes from time but he could only side-foot his effort straight at the legs of Young.

Despite dominating the rest of the match, Basingstoke were unable to force home a winner.

The Dragons are next in action on Saturday, when they travel to face fellow strugglers Whitehawk.

Sport Bites

Second place

HOCKEY: Basingstoke Hockey Club's Mens 1sts blew their slim chance of clinching the Hampshire Surrey 1 title on Saturday.

A 3-0 home defeat to first placed Bournemouth 1sts at Down Grange means 'Stoke will have to settle for second place and miss out on promotion to the South Hockey League Premier Division 2.

The weekend's loss was the last time Basingstoke will play at home this season. They are away to Reigate Priory 1sts this Saturday and face Wanderers 1sts on Saturday, April 2.

Closing in

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies claimed their second win on the bounce on Sunday to put the pressure back on league leaders Oxford City.

Goals from Lindsey Beverley, Lauren Butler and Charlie Fry helped 'Stoke to a 3-0 win at Mansfield Road Ladies FC to cement their position in second place in the Southern Region Women's Football League (SRWFL) Premier Division.

Basingstoke are three points behind leaders Oxford, who handed them a 5-1 hammering when the two sides met last month, but Town have two games in hand on their rivals.

Basingstoke are next in Premier Division action this Sunday, when they travel to fourth placed Marlow Ladies, with Oxford not set to play again until the following weekend.

Third relegation

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC will return to action this Saturday when they welcome London 2 South West high-fliers London Cornish to Down Grange.

Basingstoke will go into the tie knowing they are certain to face the drop for the third season in a row, having failed to register a single point from any of their 18 matches.

Gareth Hatherley-Hurford's side have just four matches left to play, having started the season with a five-point deduction, and will drop to the London 3 South West next year.

Ladies lead heading into final day

BASINGSTOKE Hockey Club's Ladies 1sts are in the driving seat in the tightest of title fights after winning their 12th game in a row on Saturday.

The ladies claimed a hard earned 4-2 win at Surbiton Ladies 3rds to ensure that they lead East Grinstead 2nds on goal difference heading into the final match of the season.

Basingstoke are just three goals ahead heading into Saturday's showdown at Down Grange with ninth-placed Eastbourne 1sts, while their rivals will host strugglers Andover 1sts.

But with the pressure up to maximum, 'Stoke showed no signs of wilting or ending their astonishing run at Surbiton as they lead 2-1 at half time through a Catriona Bausor brace.

And the forward quickly claimed her hat trick straight after the break with a powerful shot to give her side some breathing space, before Bausor then laid on Clare Bowman to make it 4-1.

The hosts then beat goalkeeper Gemma Carswell with a second consolation goal late on, but it wasn't to matter as Basingstoke held on to take it to the final day.

'The best night of my coaching career'

• Doug Sheppard

DOUG Sheppard has admitted he "couldn't have asked for anything better" after his Basingstoke Bison side clinched the EPL title.

The Herd director of hockey was left singing his players' praises following a thrilling 5-4 win over the Swindon Wildcats at Basingstoke Arena on Sunday.

Champions Bison have won 39 of their 52 matches so far this season - only losing back-to-back games twice all year - and Sheppard pointed to this consistency as the key for his side's success.

He said: "It's been 23 years, so it's an unbelievable feeling, and was the best night of my coaching career. I don't think many would've picked us at the start of the season, but I knew we had the group in the locker room to do it.

"It was just an amazing game, like a play-off final, and to do it at home as well, I couldn't have asked for anything better."

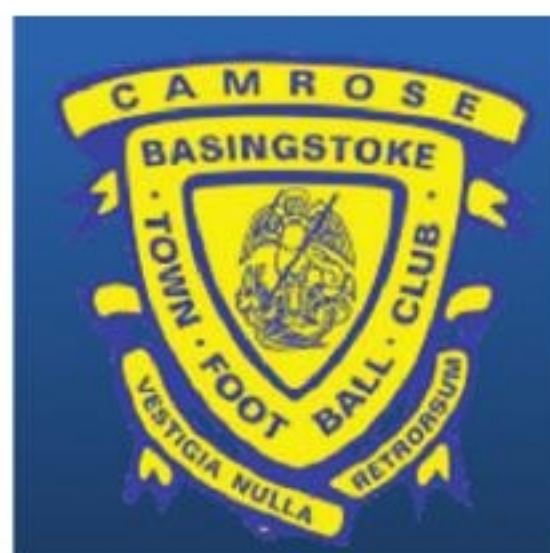

Bison still have two matches of the regular season to play this weekend, ahead of a play-off quarter final with Manchester Phoenix a week later.

And Sheppard insisted his side had to put their league title out of their head quickly and refocus if they are to make their double dream a reality.

He added: "The play-offs are such a great one to win, but this won't be like the league, it's a one-off.

"We need to refocus now, and I know my guys want it bad.

"We would love to do it for our fans, and then look back at all of this in the summer to realise what we've done."

CHAMPIONS

Bison claim league title after thrilling Swindon win

AFTER 23 long years Basingstoke Bison were finally crowned league champions once again on Sunday following the most nail biting of wins at Planet Ice.

The Herd went into the encounter with the Swindon Wildcats knowing that one more win would be enough following a 5-2 win against Telford Tigers the day before.

Goals from Ciaran Long, Rene Jarolin, Joe Greener, Ryan Watt and Aaron Connolly helped secure the win at the home of the reigning champions to leave Doug Sheppard's side on the brink.

And a packed out Basingstoke Arena didn't go home disappointed as the Stampede twice came from behind on Sunday to edge a crazy 5-4 win and clinch their second ever league crown.

But the Bison didn't have things their own way by any means during a tense opening period, with Swindon man of the match Jonas Höög slotting the puck past Jon Baston after latching onto a Tomasz Malasinski rebound on 11:41.

Basingstoke showed true champion quality to come storming back and equalise just 17 seconds later however, with star man Tomas Karpov finding Long at the back post for a trademark finish.

But Swedish winger Höög quickly re-established the lead for Swindon with a sensational goal on 17:57 - beating two home players to skate to the slot before then firing home via the five hole.

It didn't take Basingstoke long to recover from their latest set back though, as Karpov claimed his second assist 5:24 after the break, as he fed Alan Lack to score at the second attempt.

The hosts had all of the momentum at this point, and Czech sniper Karpov duly capitalised to give his side the lead for the first time on 33:01 with a fine backhand shot.

Amazingly, the Wildcats struck back again five minutes later, with that man Höög scoring a carbon copy of his second to claim his hat trick and send nerve levels through the roof.

But as they have done so many times this season, the Bison found another gear after the final break to make it 4-3 on 44:11 through Long, with Karpov and Lack claiming the assist.

And Karpov was on hand to capitalise on the power play and claim his side's fifth from the blue line 10 minutes from time.

Home fans were left with a few nervy moments towards the end as Adam Harding scored with just over a minute remaining.

But Bison held on firm after that to secure a famous win and clinch the club's first title win since winning the Heineken Division One crown in 1993.

Basingstoke will look to end the regular season in style next week when they travel to Milton Keynes Lightning and host rivals the Guildford Flames on Saturday and Sunday respectively.
